Bingo Blitz is a freemium online board and card game published by Playtika that is available for Facebook, iOS, Android, and Microsoft Windows.

Buffalo Studios in Santa Monica, California created Bingo Blitz for Facebook in 2010. By 2011, Bingo Blitz had over one million active monthly players and was the highest rated online bingo game on Facebook, as well as one of the top ten most popular games on Facebook. Caesars Entertainment paid nearly $100 million for Buffalo Studios in 2011. Caesars Entertainment, which bought Playtika in 2011, handed over management of the game to Playtika in 2012, and it was released on iOS and Android. Bingo Blitz was inducted into Facebook's Hall of Fame Games in 2014.

Since 2016, Bingo Blitz's revenue has increased by 410%, and its daily playing users have increased by more than 300%. Bingo Blitz has over a million daily active players worldwide as of 2019. Since its inception, Bingo Blitz has generated $443 million in revenue, up 38% from 2019.

Playtika's flagship game, Bingo Blitz, is one of the top 100 grossing mobile games on Apple and Android devices.

Bingo Blitz is the top-grossing board game app in the United States on the App Store and Google Play right now (2021 - 2022).

Each player chooses a virtual room in the game, and the action takes place in cities all over the world. When each game combines cases and stories related to the country in which players are located, players compete in an online bingo match. [16] To begin playing, select a city (which does not have to be your current location) and you will be entered into a bingo room in that city. Bingo Blitz's bingo cards are made up of 24 random numbers spread across five rows and columns. When the game starts, keep an eye out for your numbers so you can cross them off your card. To call bingo depends on what the winning pattern is for that particular round.

A vertical, horizontal, or diagonal line, or all four corners, are the winning patterns in the game. Power-Ups in Bingo Blitz assist you in achieving a bingo. The cards also contain Bonus Squares, which when completed award you with additional in-game prizes. [18] A full game of Bingo Blitz could include anywhere from 10 to 15 rounds. To increase their chances of winning, players must use credits to purchase more than one bingo card per round. The most common type of bingo available is the classic 75 ball bingo, but other types emerge with the changing seasons.

Events and game rooms

The main rooms are map rooms, where players travel across cities on a world map and play online bingo matches to earn various elements. Once the players have completed all of the required elements for that city, they will proceed to the next city. There are also seasonal rooms that change themes every other week. Every week, Bingo Blitz creates a new event, usually related to holidays or special occasions, in which players can collect special elements.
